CANADIAN BRONZE MEDALS.

The especial attention of Collectors is called to the following assortment of Medals and Coins relating to Canada—not only on account of its being the largest that has ever been offered at public auction, but because of the extreme rarity of some of the pieces, combined with the fine condition in which almost all the pieces will be found.

SIZE

611 Cardinal Richelieu. Bust of Richelieu. Rev. A Globe encircled by a belt within a band, with 7 stars on face. "Mens sidera volvit," 1631. Rare and very fine 34

ENGLISH SILVER COINS.

In this Series will be found the most interesting assortment of Silver Pennies of Edward the Confessor probably ever offered at Auction in this Country. These have been very kindly and minutely described by a personal friend.

EDWARD THE CONFSSOR. A. D. $\frac{1042}{1066}$

 The following extremely rare and desirable series of the Pennies of the Confessor are all in beautiful and most perfect preservation. They bear on the reverses, first, the moneyer's name, the name of the city or town, where minted, following. The references relate to the "Annals of the Coinage of Great Britain," (Ruding), where they will be found fully illustrated and described.
